The building is located in one of the most secure and prestigious neighborhoods in the city. The La Cresta area is home to many elite professionals, city and national officials, the US ambassador's home, as well as other high ranking international representatives. Located on one of the highest hills in Panamá City, this unit occupies the entire 15th floor offering spectacular vistas in all directions. This location is an amazingly quiet oasis for being so close to everything the city has to offer, including hospitals, shopping, restaurants, and entertainment. The two streets in La Cresta end in quiet cul-de-sacs. Constant cool sea breezes negate the need for very much air-conditioning. La Cresta has the greatest reliability factor for water and electricity in all of Panama. The area is built out, so no new medium or high rise buildings will be constructed in the future. The price per square meter of this condo is much less than comparable properties in Punta Pacifica,
